

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

JAMAR TRAVIS

AT EAST ORANGE
GENERAL HOSPITAL

SINCE
9/10/2012

JANUARY 2016

The Employee of the Month for January is Jamar Travis of the Safety and Security Department. Travis, as he is known to many, has been with East Orange General Hospital since 2012.

Along with the Safety and Security team, Travis takes great pride in ensuring a safe and secure environment for the hospital's patients, visitors, employees and physicians. Travis consistently displays professionalism and is polite in his actions. He is frequently acknowledged for his commitment and dedication in carrying out his responsibilities. Travis's willingness to provide assistance and support is seen on those evenings when he routinely walk employees and visitors to their vehicles, and if he is unable to leave his post, Travis provides reassurance that he is watching them on the hospital's surveillance system to ensure their safety.

In addition to his kind demeanor, Travis is always willing to lend a helping hand and volunteer his time at hospital events when needed. Travis's consistent positive attitude and caring smile is welcoming to our patients and visitors, and is an excellent first impression for the hospital.

Travis is also known throughout the organization for taking ownership and being accountable. He is willing to work various shifts when needed and take on challenges without hesitation while maintaining his CAN DO positive attitude. He is recognized for his patience in dealing with stressful situations and acknowledged for always attempting to provide a calm environment. Overall, Travis goes above and beyond to assist his colleagues and to ensure the safety of the hospital's campus. He is respected for his work ethics and ongoing enthusiasm.

Congratulations Travis on a job well done and keep up the good work!
