

Our Choice Is Excellence

Employee of the Month

KAREN TAYLOR

AT EAST ORANGE
GENERAL HOSPITAL
SINCE 1988

FEBRUARY 2010

The February Employee of the Month is Karen Taylor, RN, a well respected member of the ICU Team. She exemplifies the dedication, commitment, and professionalism embodied in EOGH's "Our Choice is Excellence" Service Philosophy.

Karen excels at customer service and builds positive relationships by treating patients and their families, staff and physicians equally with respect and dignity. She exhibits a deep concern for the quality of life and is always attentive to the comfort and needs of those within her care.

Each patient receives customized service in a safe and caring manner. She is widely known for her calm demeanor and compassion, particularly in times of difficulty.

Karen demonstrates accountability by carrying out her individual and team assignments with minimal supervision. She is proactive in greeting others and in offering her assistance as needed. Not only does she actively seek out opportunities to enhance her clinical skills, she also uses her knowledge to strengthen her role as the Palliative Care Nurse. Additionally, Karen gives back to her peers by teaching CPR/Basic Life Support classes and regularly volunteers at the Hospital's Community Outreach events.

Karen Taylor is truly a role model.

Congratulations!

EAST ORANGE
GENERAL HOSPITAL